What we do with the information we collect

We require this information for the following reasons:

- To fulfil our 'Contractual Obligations'
- To understand your needs and provide you with a better service
- To improve our products and services
- To improve our website and the information held on it
- If you have chosen to subscribe to our Newsletter then we may periodically send promotional emails about new products, special offers or other information which we think you may find interesting using the email address which you have provided.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Controlling your personal information

Your information will only be used for legitimate business purposes and to fulfil contractual obligations. We will not pass your information to other parties unless it is required to fulfil contracted works. All data disclosures will only be relevant to the particular requirements of the contracted works. This information will be handled in accordance with the guidelines of the GDPR and again will only be relevant to the requirements of providing our goods / services.

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission, are required by law to do so or to fulfil contractual obligations.

We will hold the digital and physical files on record for as long as required by the relevant contracts or as required by law. This digital data is stored on secure servers and the physical copies in an on-site archive store. Both of these can only be accessed by members of staff that require it as data processors.

You may choose to restrict the collection or use of your personal information in the following ways: If you have previously agreed to us using your personal information for direct marketing purposes, you may change your mind at any time by either:

- Clicking on the 'Unsubscribe' link at the bottom of the marketing e-mail you have received
- emailing us at marketing@autopa.co.uk
- writing to us using our business address (see contact details section)

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so.

You may request details of personal information which we hold about you at any time, if you would like a copy of the information held on you please use one of the contact methods below to submit your request.

Although you have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioners' Office (ICO – www.ico.org.uk) who are the UK's authority for data protection issues, we would like the opportunity to deal with your concerns, correct any incorrect or incomplete data before you approach the ICO.
